PTSA HEADLINE NEWS

The weekly news for parents at FCES. For the full story, go to www.fcpspta.org.

No Effort Fundraising Pays at FCES

FCES parents have many ways to raise funds for our school without doing any work at all. Here is what we have received from our community partners in just the first two months of school:

Sahara Pizza	$168
Albertsons	$560
Farmhouse Market	$200
Escrip	$240
Microsoft United Way	$225

Go to fcpspta.org for details on how to participate, or contact Tracy Pascoe (dpascoe@msn.com, 223-0857). Keep shopping – you are helping our kids!

Reading Hall of Fame Starts Nov. 1

The Reading Hall of Fame tracking form for November is posted at fcpspta.org. Print it out, hang it on the fridge, and get reading! When your student reads 400 minutes and turns in their completed form at the end of the month, they will get a small prize plus be entered for a drawing for a free book. The October reading program for Sonics tickets is almost finished! Turn in your forms by Oct. 31st.

WASL Information Night

The teachers are hosting a WASL Information Night, Nov. 13th at 6:00 pm. Come learn more about the WASL test and how you can help your child prepare.

Volunteers Needed for Spaghetti Dinner

Your help is key to having a successful Spaghetti Dinner! Contact Miranda Thorpe (missm@cablespeed.com, 836-8417) to sign up for a 30 or 60 minute shift between 5:00 and 8:15 pm on Nov. 8th. You can prep, serve, restock, or help with set-up or tear-down. It's lots of fun and your help is needed!

Nominating Committee to be formed soon

The Nominating Committee for next school year's PTSA officers will be formed at the PTSA General Meeting on Nov. 13th. Many current officers are in their last year and key positions will need to be elected. The committee finds and nominates parents interested in these elected positions. Contact an officer for more information.

Wizard of Oz

Howie McOمبر brings the Wizard of Oz as the next musical for the Monday after-school drama program, starting on Nov. 5th. Download the registration form at fcpspta.org now!

Book Fair Volunteers

There is still need Book Fair volunteers — see fcpspta.org for details. Contact Tammy Klupar (tklupar@msn.com) if you can work any shift from Nov 5-9th.
