PTSA HEADLINE NEWS

The weekly news for parents at FCES. For the full story, go to www.fcpspta.org.

Do You Know a Great Leader for Next Year's PTSA?

Over winter break, start thinking of potential candidates to run the 2008/2009 PTSA. The Nominating Committee will be asking for your input in January. Keep our school a great place by helping the committee create a strong slate of recommended officers for next year!

Learn about the Upcoming Bond to Build New Schools

What new schools does the District need to build for our kids? Where will those schools be located? Come hear Superintendent Joel Aune speak about the new, upcoming School Bond and the current state of our school District:

PTSA General Meeting
Tuesday, January 8th at 7pm
Guest: Joel Aune,
SVSD Superintendent
Childcare provided

This is a great opportunity to become better informed and support your child's future education.

Foodball Ends Monday, Dec 17th!

Please remember to bring in your last food or cash donations on Monday, the final day of Foodball. Our kids can be proud of having already collected well over 6,000 pounds of food for local food banks. What a wonderful gift to give to our community, especially this time of year. Thank you for your generosity!

School Bus Drivers Needed

Snoqualmie Valley School District is now accepting applications for its next School Bus Driver Training Class beginning in January 2008. If you'd like to begin a new career in the Valley — and you enjoy children — this could be the job for you! Call 425-831-8027 or visit www.svsd410.org for more information.

Raffle Tickets on Sale After Break!

The annual Teacher Open House, Ice Cream Social and Raffle is Thursday, January 17th. Each class will create a special gift basket for the raffle. New this year: look for an exciting, BIG item from the 5th graders. Ticket sales start January 4th. The raffle will raise funds for ASB and PTSA, funding scholarships, field trips, and safety patrol.
