PTSA HEADLINE NEWS

The weekly news for parents at FCES. For the full story, go to www.fcесptsa.org.

FCES All-School Science Fair

Wednesday, March 5th 6-8PM

Look for projects and activities in the Gym, Multi-purpose Room, Library & Hall

- See reptiles such as snakes, lizards, and turtles brought in by the Herpetological Society
- Touch skulls and pelts of Endangered or Extinct animals from Cougar Mountain Zoo
- Experience Sci-Art in Action (FCES's renowned Science and Art program)
- Visit with Friends of the Issaquah Fish Hatchery
- View our children's science studies on display:
  - Grades 3-5: Individual or Group Science Projects
  - Grades K-2: Class-Level Exhibits or Hands-on Activities
- Build electrical circuits, extreme aerodynamic paper airplanes, and more!

Contact Lori Hollasch for more information (880-4768; lori@hollasch.net).

Bring the whole family for a fun, free, and educational evening!

Staff Appreciation

Help make our staff feel special!

March 10-14 is "Classified Staff Appreciation Week". The PTSA has many activities planned. Can you provide any of the following to thank the staff who make our school so great?:

- Food for Continental Breakfast, a Soup and Salad Luncheon, or Dessert Day
- Car (interior) detailing
- Small Gifts for every staff member
- Thank you notes from our children

Email Charlotte Campanella (johnacamp@aol.com).

March Reading Program: Iditaread is back!

The Library and PTSA partner to run their own version of the Iditarod called Iditaread! Instead of competing on a snowy race course in Alaska, the students will compete with reading minutes. See www.fcесptsa.org for details. Join the fun!

Student Art Gallery

The annual PTSA Art Gallery will be in full display this month in the main hallway. Submission deadline is Monday, March 24th. See the flyer in Friday Folder for details. Everyone is an artist so get busy with your masterpiece. Happy Creating!
